

Dobrudja as a border area in the Late Ottoman
Empire, Bulgaria and Romania History and memory

NOVEMBER 4 | ZOOM

Register at acad_sudest@yahoo.com

ROUND
TABLE

PROGRAMME

10:00-10:10

Daniel Cain (director ISEES)

Opening remarks

PANEL I

DOBRUDJA DURING XIX CENTURY

Chairman: Blagovest Njagulov

10:10-10:30

Virginia Blînda (ISEES)

Les habitants qui fuient en Turquie et inversement: observations en marge de quelques documents d'archives (1853)

10:30-10:50

Aleka Strezova (IHS)

Through the eyes of pioneers: Accounts of maritime South Dobrudja in the travel notes of Felix Kanitz, Konstantin Jireček, the Shkorpil brothers and Todor Mumdzhev (second half of XIX century)

10:50-11:10

Ştefan Petrescu (ISEES)

From Empire to Nation State: The Greek Communities in Northern Dobrudja (1878-1880)

11:10-11:30

Daniel Cain (ISEES)

The challenges of a new administration: the case of Lipovan Russians from Tulcea County (end of XIX-century)

11:30-12:00

Discussions and coffee break

PANEL II

DOBRUDJA DURING XX CENTURY

Chairman: Daniel Cain

12:00-12:20

Blagovest Njagulov (IHS)

Entre partialité nationale et impartialité historique: Le pluralisme historiographique concernant le différend sur la Dobroudja en Bulgarie et en Roumanie

12:20-12:40

Dimitar Hristov (IHS)

Metropolitan Symeon of Varna and Preslav (1840-1937) and Dobrudja

12:40-13:00

Petar Dobrev (University of Sofia)

Bulgarian landowners and the Romanian administration (1918-1940)

13:00-13:20

Stelu Şerban, Ştefan Dorondel (ISEES)

The sedentarization of Rudarii in socialist and post-socialist Bulgaria

13:20-13:45

Discussions

INSTITUTE FOR SOUTH-EAST
EUROPEAN STUDIES
ROMANIAN ACADEMY

INSTITUTE FOR HISTORICAL RESEARCH
BULGARIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES